Cut a 2"X2" square from the cake. Place in the center of plate.

Top with a dollop of the lemon sabayon, dragging some of the sabayon down onto the plate to create a "tail" of sauce. Top the cake and sabayon with a small amount of the fresh blueberry sauce, repeating the same saucing design as the sabayon. Top the cake with a scoop of the white chocolate poppy seed ice cream.

A white chocolate garnish, and a mint sprig. Scatter a few of the sugared blueberries around the plate, and dust the dessert with confectioner's sugar.
